

Communication & Language

Listening & Attention

When reading to your child, be animated, use different voices and noises to grab and hold their attention. Allow your child to choose which story to read, often children will have favourites!

Sing songs and nursery rhymes with your child. Make music too!

Encourage your child to listen to sounds around the house and identify them.